

In honor of World Press Freedom Day

the U.S.Embassy presents

"Good Night, and Good Luck" In the early 1950s, the threat of Communism created an air of paranoia in the United States. Exploiting those fears was Senator Joseph McCarthy of Wisconsin. However, courageous CBS reporter Edward R. Murrow took a stand and challenged McCarthy, and exposed him for the fear monger he was. However, his actions took a great personal toll on him, but he stood by his convictions and helped to bring down one of the most controversial senators in American history.

Wednesday, May 2 at 15:00

U.S. Embassy multi-purpose room

The film will be shown in English with English subtitles

RSVP Required:

Please sign up at the U.S. Embassy library or call 252 596-705